VOLUME X.

GRAYLING, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1888.

NUMBER 27.

MICHIGAN HAPPENINGS.

EVENTS AND INCIDENTS THAT HAVE LATELY OCCURRED.

An interesting summary of the more important Doings of Our Neighbors—Wadsworth
and Lake Huron Crimes, Casualties,
and General News Notes.

A railroad will be built through
Houghton, Ontonagon, and Gogebic Counties, seventy-five miles long, with terminals at Houghton and Watersmeet.
The line will follow the mineral range of copper, and will open what is practically an undeveloped country. It will be built principally by local capital.

F. J. Stimpson, for sixteen years the marine reporter at Mackinaw City, was drowned in the Straits.

Hall & Buckley expect to cut out 200,000 feet of logs in Schoolcraft County this winter.

Hon. James Lee, for many years a resident of Leelanau and Grand Traverse Counties, died at his home in Traverse City. Mr. Lee served in the Legislature for two terms, and was a man of honesty and integrity. He leaves a large circle of friends.

R. L. Speechley, of Ann Arbor, has a Spanish coin which bears date 1772 and is of the size of our half-dollar. It was plowed up in the Saline Union School District twenty-two years ago.

Alpena people don't like it because cattle are allowed to roam about the streets at their own free will.

The Manchester School Board receives $165 for foreign tuition this year.

Sheep-killing dogs are making havoc at Blissfield and vicinity.

Chas. Hanna and "Doc" Bentley, members of the notorious Bentley gang of young burglars, have been sentenced to five years each in State Prison by Judge Peek, at Lansing.

The Dundas gas well is down 1,000
feet.

A man named Peckham, living at Almost, was walking on the track of the Kalamazoo and South Haven Railway
when he was struck by an engine, and had his arm broken.

A shaft will be sunk on some part of the land in Emmet County, underneath
the surface of which it is supposed much iron ore is buried. If there is any in that section it will be found.

Rev. Mr. Radcliffe, rector of St. Paul's Church at Mount Forest, Ont., has accepted a call to All Saints' Church, at East Saginaw.

The Reservoir, barn, and outbuildings of D. J. Hiscock, near Ovid, burned, at a loss of $5,000; insurance, $3,000.

Diphtheria is raging to a considerable extent at Ontonagon.

Capt. Pratt, of the Bay City militia company, has resigned.

Miss Deno's charge against the Carrollton school-teacher, Harry C. Lyle, has been refuted in having his certificate annulled.
Lyle failed to marry Miss Deno, and she cannot get him arrested for breach of promise
on the eve of his marriage to another girl.
Then she let up, and the marriage took place. Later, however, she made charges of immorality against him.

Sumatha Streeter, a widow, residing four miles west of Jackson, has been robbed of $1,150 in gold. Being afraid of banks she converted her earnings into gold and buried it in the house. The gold was placed in a sugar-bowl. A buffalo's horn from Texas, a pig's horn from Kansas, a large stone
pipe weighing one and one-half pounds,
and a smaller one, stone knives, nearly 200

flint arrow heads, a copper vessel, and two stone ones, spear heads, and other Indian implements and weapons. A collection of crystals, cornicles, and curious stones, including the "sandals" the lake shore
at the foot of Indiana street—and tore down their houses. The citizens did not present any petitions. The Council did not ask any questions.

Recent additions to the Luther enterprise collection of curiosities are as follows: A book—"Memories of What Passed

in Christendom from the War Begun 1612
to the Peace Concluded 1678"—printed in 1678.

The Sault Ste. Marie National Bank building is a very handsome structure, judging from the cut of it published by the "Sco" News.

Kalamazoo is growing. The lively city now claims a population of 20,000.

The County Superintendents of Poor
of Kalamazoo County and the Supervisors for an appropriation of $46,000 to support the poor and insane for the coming year.

Mr. Pleasant Tribune, Brown & Loring, will lumber quite extensively in Die-
field, Sherman, and Denver Townships
this season. They will operate five camps, and intend to cut 8,000,000 feet of logs.

Sixty taxpayers of Marion Township, Oscoda County, have signed a petition in favor of paying the $5,000 railroad bonds.

The general store of Finnegan Bros., at Gladstone, burned. Loss, $8,000; insurance, $3,000.

The Bay City shingle making firm,
who employed girls as shingle packers,
had had as much trouble with the girls

as they could have had with the most obdurate of men. The latest freak on the part of the girls, who were making from $1.40 to $1.68 per day, was to strike, and they struck out the first crack. Boys will take their places.

J. C. Headley, foreman for C. M. Hill, reports that eighteen logs sixteen feet in length were cut from one tree at his camp
recently in Gladwin County.

A farmer named Turner, living near Daggett, lost one of his best sheep on four consecutive nights by a bear. On the fourth night Mr. Brum attempted the operation again, but was not by a maholog 9 years old and the "tug of war" commenced. The bear was finally knocked out with the tusks of his enemy, being torn open from end to end. Presently Mr. Turner came up with a lantern and reflected, as he chopped Brum's head open,
that it was a pretty good job for a borrowed hog.

Some months ago our inventive citizen,
D. E. Hull, says the Adrian Times, while watching a rider on a bicycle glide
swiftly by him, got to wondering if a machine could not be built that would have the same speed from a tricycle, but not be able to trip its rider. Mr. Hull went to work on his idea, and now has a wheel
that can keep up with the best of them.
He has christened it "The Flying Quar-tercycle." It is a rough-looking arrangement of poles and wheels, but it works like a charm.

Vincente Calabrese is the name of the man received at the Jackson Prison from Schoolcraft County on a three years' sentence for larceny from a dwelling in the daytime.

The copper country is soon to be a distinguished visitor, who comes to Lake Superior expressly to examine the celebrated native copper mines of that district. He is R. Kondo, of the Mining University of Japan, who is reported to be the wealthiest man in Japan outside of the royal family. He operates sixteen different mines of gold, silver, and copper in his own country, and now desires to obtain a thorough knowledge of the mining industry in America.

The West Branch Times speaks of the Cortland Lumber Company's works at that place as follows: "They now have five machines in operation besides the saw for cutting up the lumber into sizes as ordered for the market. Their dry kilns work to perfection, and the lumber is perfectly seasoned in six days. They are unable to fill orders on account of scarcity of logs.
A stock will be put in this winter to last them through next season. Some of their wide boards are a curiosity. Archie Blake cut one on one of the machines a board 84 feet wide, 5-1/2 thick, and L. E. Miller cut on the same machine one 76 feet wide. W.
M. Curtin cut one on a larger machine one 55 feet wide and 7-1/2 thick. It seems almost incredible that so much could be gotten out of one log. The factory is a grand thing for West Branch. They have paid for labor and material since starting upward of $12,000."

Albert Vogel has sold 800,000 feet of elm and black ash lumber, the product of his mill at Scottville. The purchaser was Frod Miller, of Chicago, and the price $13
per M. mill run.

Pope, Paine & Co., of Boston, seek a mill site at the Soo, where they may build a big mill and saw 30,000,000 feet of lumber
per year.

Having left college he came to Chicago
in October, 1886, and graduated in October, 1888.

Wentworth has a Latin grammar in his pocket, and expected to teach

Fifteen more pension vetoes! Mr. Cleveland has evidently become convinced that the soldier vote is not for him and is trying hard to satisfy his revenge while he has the opportunity. —Del. Tribune.

Gen. Ben Harrison is the best type of the true American citizen. No man who has studied his record and read his speeches can fail to assent to that. And he is going to be our next president. He has captured the popular heart.—Del. Tribune.

No part of our ticket is more important than the legislative. A United States Senator to be chosen next winter and republicans should bear that fact in mind and see to it that every republican vote is polled for our candidates for State Senator and Representative.

"Oh what a sad blow,
Dan says he will go,
And what will poor Grover do then?
No Dan to invite for him;
No speeches he'll write for him;
He must step down and out for Ben."

Frank W. Wheeler is a model man. He is worthy of the support of every voter. If elected to Congress (and it now seems certain he will be elected) he will be a representative in whom the people of this district can take pride. Vote for him.—Clare Press.

The verdict of the people on the tariff will soon be registered at the polls. The issue so squarely drawn and ably discussed in congress now goes to the people for their decision. It is the protective system against the free trade system. We believe the voters have already made up their minds and that the American system of protection to home labor and home industries will be strongly upheld.—Detroit Tribune.

A democratic speaker at the Opera House, in this place, a short time since, claimed that there had never been an "old soldier" removed or discharged from the government service whose place had not been filled by a "veteran" from the democratic party. He lied! The Detroit Tribune of last week gave a list of 19 mail agents who were removed from roads running out of Detroit, and not one of their places has been filled by an old soldier. Their average service in the Union army was 3½ years and in the mail service about ten years.

The strong political drift in favor of Harrison and protection is having its effect on business. The feeling is gaining that the free trade crusade is to be a failure, and the next Congress and executive will be protectionist, consequently there is a hopeful air in the business world, and the anticipations of prosperity in trade keep pace with the improving prospects of a sweeping republican victory.—Blade.

The Bay City Tribune says: "A democratic editor at a school house meeting near Flint, recently made the startling announcement that the Mills bill reduction of 50 per cent, on the tariff on castor oil would make a great difference in the cost of painting fences, barns, etc. Of course the audience roared."

(Signed.) GREENE PACK.
We certify that the foregoing statement is substantially correct.

(Signed.) GEORGE W. JENKS,
JOHN S. THOMPSON.

The Bay City Tribune says: "A democratic editor at a school house meeting near Flint, recently made the startling announcement that the Mills bill reduction of 50 per cent, on the tariff on castor oil would make a great difference in the cost of painting fences, barns, etc. Of course the audience roared."

This was almost equal to the statement made by a democratic speaker in Grayling, that "there are neither mines nor smelting works for tin in the United States."

The Delineator.

The Delineator for the month of November has been received. The styles presented are suitable for winter wear, and are suitable for all classes of weavers. A greater portion of the book is devoted to the fashion for Ladies, Misses and Children; but the gentlemen are not forgotten, but are treated with instructions as to what is the right thing in furnishing goods. Considerable space is also devoted to "Illustrated Miscellany," "Dressmaking at Home," "Children's Corner," "Fashionable Triumphant" and "Early Winter Millinery." Every lady should subscribe for it. Price $1 per year. Subscriptions received at this office.

Correspondence.

S. Hutt has entered the list of live stock buyers, having purchased a young bear which he is raising. The republican meeting held at Cheney on the 18th inst., was a great success. Such arguments were presented by Geo. L. Alexander and O. Palmer are telling ones and should convince the most biased and ignorant, R. Hansons' remarks were timely, bringing to memory incidents of the past. The republican club rendered efficient music. There was no slang used but plain comparisons of Protection vs. Free Trade, side by side as matters of fact in history will clearly show. Such arguments, are worth far more than mere bombast to which we are too often treated. We have the promise of the presentation of the other side in the near future.

We understand that Mary Love is engaged to teach the school in the J. G. Marsh district, of Grayling township.

F. P. Richardson is talking of doing a job of lumbering near Higgins Lake this winter.

The Cheney Lake House and Store has been consolidated.

F. P. Richardson, postmaster at Cheney has sent in his resignation and we understand A. Stilwell is to be his successor.—Observer.

Center Plains, Oct. 24th.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown,—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a disordered condition of the Liver, or in performing its functions, finding it cannot dispose of the bile until to pass off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's Angust Flower. Its cures are marvelous.

Gen. Ben Harrison is the best type of the true American citizen. No man who has studied his record and read his speeches can fail to assent to that.

And he is going to be our next president. He has captured the popular heart.—Del. Tribune.

No part of our ticket is more important than the legislative. A United States Senator to be chosen next winter and republicans should bear that fact in mind and see to it that every republican vote is polled for our candidates for State Senator and Representative.

Fisher is a Free Trader.

We understand that Mr. Fisher, and his friends for him, are now claiming that he is not in favor of free trade. Mr. Green Pack, of the lumbering firm of Pack, Woods & Co., of Oscoda, a gentleman well known throughout the district, makes public the following statement of a conversation held by him with Mr. Fisher last winter in Washington:

"About the last of February or 1st of March of the present year I was in Washington, and there I met Geo. W. Jenkins, of the firm of J. Jenkins & Co., of Sandusky, salt manufacturers, and John Thompson, of the firm of Thompson Bros., manufacturers of salt at St. Clair Mich. They were then in Washington, as I understood, at the suggestion of W. R. Burt, to labor with the democratic members of congress from this state, and to endeavor to get them to stand by the tariff on salt. I went with them and we discussed the matter with Hon. J. R. Whiting, the member from the Seventh district, but without avail. We met S. O. Fisher in the office of the Ebbett house one evening. We asked him to stand by the tariff on salt and also on lumber. He told us that he should vote to put salt and lumber on the free list. I told him that would be a great disappointment to his constituents. He said he could not help it, that he should vote to put them on the free list just the same. I told him that a great many men in our towns voted for him because his (Fisher's) friends assured them that he was as good a protectionist as H. M. Loud, who was running against him at that time, and that they certainly would not have voted for him if they had supposed he was in favor of taking the tariff off of salt and lumber. He answered by saying 'my friends had no business to say so.' I told him 'they did say so, and they were believed and got a lot of votes for you on the strength of what they said.' He said 'I had no business to say so. I never authorized anybody to say so, for that was not my view. I am going to vote for free lumber and free salt,' and then continued in a very emphatic and petulant manner, 'I am for Free Trade, always have been and always expect to be.' This is substantially the conversation. Then it ended. Mr. Thompson and Mr. Jenkins were both present and took part in the conversation.

per and Social at her residence, to morrow evening. The proceeds will be used for the purpose of procuring a chandelier for the M. E. church. A cordial welcome will be given all who attend.

A prominent democrat was running around town last week demanding
"Grand Army Song Books." He procured one, but their Glee Club failed to find any inspiration for the party in it, and it was not used. Cheek and gall in this case went hand in hand.

The Lansing Fogg swept down upon Grayling, Tuesday evening and settled in the Opera House, before a fair audience, whom he well nigh tired out with his rhapsody of the old greenback screed,
so that more than half left the hall before he finished. His denunciation of the old parties was in the old line, and his theories of reform are as vague and wild as ever.

Stop digging wells and have F. R.
Deckrow put in a tubular well for you. No dirt in the well, no caving in,
and always pure water, and never out of order. Windmills and pumps bought of him will be set and warranted. Buy the best and save money.

BY TELEGRAPH.

A NEWSY MELANGE.

DOINGS OF OUR NEIGHBORS AT HOME AND ABROAD.

Events of Interest and Importance in Every Quarter of the Globe, Religious Intelligence, Crimes and Casualties, Industrial Notes, Personal Mention.

CONGRESS ADJOURNS.

The closing hours of the session of Congress, on the 20th inst., were comparable to those of one of its predecessors within the memory of the present generation. The bustle and excitement, the scenes of political maneuvering, the declaimers and lobbyists, the efforts of the legislators in behalf of belated measures, were conspicuously missing. In the Senate a gallery of distinguished senators, who had been reduced to a mere skeleton of their former selves by age and infirmities, had increased to two or three hundred at the end, and these looked down in placid silence upon the round dozen of senators and congressional clerks, pages, and attendants busily engaged upon the floor of the chamber. The dignity and decorum of the body were apparent to all. The number of members of numbers, and the fact that there was less than a quorum present, and that the body was practically powerless for any legislative purpose, was clearly concealed from the official eyes of the official reporter. Constructively, the tariff bill was a success on its merits, but a word of hard truth must be told. The last hour, with a few momentary interruptions, was spent in a state of suspended animation—of watchful silence. The defeat of the independent Pro-Tem Angels arose from the utterance of his first syllable, the hiss of protest and silence fell upon the body. No business or motion was transacted, and Congress adjourned at 1 o'clock.

SHOT HIS WIFE DEAD.

Victor Hill kills the mother of his child and flies to the Woods.

Victor Hill, of Winchester, Ind., drove to the house of his father-in-law, Zimri Moffett, where his wife was staying. He entered the house, asked his wife to see their baby, and when she refused he drew a pistol and shot Zimri Moffett in the back as the latter was leaving the room, inflicting only a slight wound. He then shot at Mrs. Warren Harper, his sister-in-law, but her corset turned off the ball, so that it inflicted only a slight bruise. Then he shot his wife through the heart. After this he fled to the woods, followed safely by old Mr. Moffett with a loaded musket. Mrs. Warren Harper took the musket from her father, pursued Hill, and fired at him with unknown effect.

CANT AGREE.

The Sioux Indians and the Government Fail to Make Terms.

The Sioux Indians that went to Washington have gone home, having refused to come to the Government's terms in regard to the sale of 11,000,000 acres of their reservation. The result of their deliberations was that fifty of the sixty-seven signed a protest against the proposition of the Government. The others affixed their signatures to a document denouncing what they termed their companions' inconsistency, saying it was agreed between them before going to Washington that they would not ask more than $5,000,000, whereas they now want $10,000,000. The majority formally notified Secretary Vilas that the Government's propositions were rejected.

FATAL LAND SLIDE.

Ninety People Meet Death While on an Excursion.

A Rome special says: A dispatch from Potosi states that ten cars of a train crowded with excursionists, returning from the Naples fete, were crushed in a remote portion of that district by a land slide consisting of a huge mass of rock. The telegraph line being broken by an avalanche, help was delayed two hours. The scene that followed the disaster was horrible; seventy injured passengers and ninety corpses were taken from the wreck.

SENTRIES BEATEN BY SOLDIERS.

Two Deserters Escape from Barracks by a Double Murder.

Two soldiers at Jefferson Barracks, St. Louis, under arrest for desertion, escaped after making a deadly assault on Sentries Welch and Kennedy. The deserters were Thomas Lynch and a recruit named McCurdy. Sentry Kennedy was cut down with an ax in the hands of Lynch, while McCurdy hit Welch into insensibility with the butt of a revolver he had taken away from the sentry. The men will die.

Hanged Himself.

Louise Schaeff hanged herself at her home in Cincinnati, Ohio. Last July, while a nurse at the Cincinnati Hospital, she was infested by a patient, with between $100 and $200 to purchase bonds; she kept the money. She was arrested on a charge of larceny, and it is known of her home revealed a quantity of linen belonging to the hospital. A second charge of larceny was preferred by the hospital authorities.

New York Socialists.

The New York Socialists in convention made those nominations:

For Governor—Edward J. Hall, a machinist; For Lieutenant-Governor—Christian Pathburg, a saloon keeper of Brooklyn.

For Court of Appeals Judge—Dr. Franz Gern, a Mayor of New York—Alexander Jones, an editor.

They also make nominations for Electors, Congressmen, Assemblmen, and for the minor municipal offices.

Public Execution in Texas.

William Washington, colored, was hanged near Columbus, Texas, in the presence of 3,000 people. The prisoner professed religion and joined the church a few days before. Washington was charged and convicted of outraging and murdering a white woman near Columbus, and confessed his crime.

A Fatal Family Quarrel.

Near Fairmont, Ky., four brothers named Draper and their brother-in-law, John Gordon, had a shooting affray, in which Gordon was seriously and Richard Draper fatally wounded.

Royal Arch Masons.

Seventy-five chapters were represented at the annual meeting of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, at Indianapolis, Ind. The following officers were elected: Grand High Priest—Daniel McDonald, Plymouth; Deputy High Priest, Elmer Crockett, Lutzford; Grand Secretary, E. D. Church, Michigan City.

Factory Closed.

President William A. Abbott, of the Atlantic Cigar Company, of Westfield, Mass., has disappeared, and attachments have been placed on his property and on the property of the company, which is hopelessly insolvent, owing between $60,000 and $70,000. The factory has been closed, rendering 120 persons idle.

Destroyed by Fire.

The Schutzen Platz at Fairmount, near Cincinnati, which began its career forty years ago as a Baptist theological seminary, was used during the war by the government, and since by a company of sharpshooters, was burned at a loss of $20,000, fully insured.

Unsatisfactory Condition.

Receiver Byron J. Smith of the Traders Bank of Chicago, reports that the affairs of the bankrupt institution are in a very unsatisfactory shape. It is alleged that Joseph

O. Rutledge $300,000 out of the institution last year, and an effort is being made to trace the money.

MCGARIGLE TALKS OF CHICAGO.

He Says He Lost Money by His Connection with Politics.

W. J. McGarigle, with his wife and family, recently visited Winnipeg, Manitoba. It is believed he went there to meet some Chicago friends, who are seeking to arrange an armistice and secure his return to Chicago in time to take part in the election. He talked quite boldly and does any man in Chicago to prove he has ever taken a fall from anybody wrongfully or that he has not acted on the square. He says he is a victim of political intrigue and has stood quietly by and suffered ignominy, while those who are guilty have gone scot-free. He blames certain political parties for trying to work up a conspiracy against him in the hope of having a big political scandal equal to New York, with the object of ruining others. He was seized upon because in his position enemies believed he knew everything and would split. He admits having handled and distributed political corruption funds, but says he did it squarely and everybody knew it had to be done. He expects to return to Chicago when the excitement cools down. He says the people of Chicago have not lost confidence in him, and that he will resume his position of confidence when he returns. He was fated to some extent in trying to discover his whereabouts.

AN INTERESTING BOND CASE.

The Decision Anxiously Awaited by Particulars to the Suit.

Arguments have been heard before Judge Andrew of the New York Supreme Court, in the case of I. B. Newcomb & Co. against the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad Company and John Bloodgood and William Lattimer, executors of the William Lattimer estate. The case is an interesting one, and the decision of Judge Andrews will be anxiously awaited.

Judge Jacob F. Hill, the defaulting executor of the estate of William Lattimer, has pledged with I. B. Newcomb & Co. $30,000 worth of Chicago and Northwestern stock and $10,000 in cash to the firm. When the defection of Hill became known to his executors, John Bloodgood and William Lattimer,通知了 New York, and the Chicago and Northwestern Company of their claim to the bonds. This notice set up the bonds completely, and Newcomb & Co. brought suit in the Supreme Court against the railroad company and Bloodgood and Lattimer, as executors of the William Lattimer estate. The executors of the William Lattimer estate, in the name of the bondholders, filed a counterclaim to the registered bonds in place of the coupon bonds; that the coupons be paid; that the title to the bonds be given to the executors; that Bloodgood be decreed to have no interest in the bonds, and that damages be awarded for malicious interference and collusion. The defense is unmet on the ground that Hill was not a party.

THE EXCLUSION ACT VALID.

Decision of Judge Sawyer in Two Test Cases Brought by Chinese.

Judge Sawyer of the United States Circuit Court at San Francisco, has announced his decision in two cases brought to test the Chinese exclusion act. The Court decides that the act is constitutional and, by its terms, becomes operative immediately upon its passage. The Court further declares that the return certificate granted to Chinese departing from the country is not a contract, but is simply an instrument to establish the identity of a party entitled to certain privileges under a compact between the United States and China. Treaties, the decision says, confer privilege as long as they are in force, but the right of Congress to control or regulate treaty stipulations has been clearly recognized. The counsel for the Chinese gave notice that they would appeal to the Federal Supreme Court. This decision affects about 30,000 Chinese who hold return certificates, and about 3,000 who departed from this country before the passing of the restriction act.
